RESOLUTION NO. 38-79

WHEREAS, W. A. Saunders, Navajo County Surveyor of 1911, identified and recognized the existing county dirt wagon road, located Northwest of the City of Winslow, on the Navajo County Roads Map, completed in 1911, and

WHEREAS, the Navajo County Roads Map of 1911 shows the location of the existing county dirt wagon road to run Northwest from the City of Winslow to the Coconino County Line, and

WHEREAS, the Navajo County Board of Supervisors dedicated and accepted the existing county dirt wagon road, located Northwest of the City of Winslow, on February 1, 1912, and

WHEREAS, this roadway has historic value and has been historically known as "Whipple Road," "Beale Road," "Lees Ferry Mormon Immigration Wagon Road," and "Leupp Road," and

WHEREAS, the present Navajo County Board of Supervisors have exhibited support for the documentation and research conducted by the Navajo County Historical Society establishing the historical merit of the old county dirt wagon road, and

WHEREAS, the present Navajo County Board of Supervisors has found and deemed that the existing old county dirt wagon road, located Northwest of the City of Winslow, should be acknowledged as an historical roadway, therefore be it

RESOLVED that the Navajo County Board of Supervisors hereby acknowledges the old county dirt wagon road, located Northwest of the City of Winslow, running to the Navajo Indian Reservation's South Boundary Line, as an historical roadway, in its present existing location, identified from the actions of the Navajo County Board of Supervisors of February 1, 1912 and the Navajo County Roads Map of 1911.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that this old county dirt wagon road shall remain in its natural state, without county maintenance, forever available for recreation and appreciation of its historic merit.
