RESOLUTION NO. 94-80

OPPOSITION TO THE PASSAGE OF PROPOSITION 106

WHEREAS, the Intent of Proposition 106 and what will actually pass are not the same. Instead of being referred to as bringing tax relief to homeowners, it should more accurately be referred to as the Mines, Utilities and Railroads Relief Proposition, for they will receive the bulk of the tax savings.

WHEREAS, STATE spending will not be affected at all for they do not rely on the property tax as a revenue source.

WHEREAS, the voters of Arizona on this past June 3, 1980 passed a comprehensive tax reform package which also included a comprehensive spending limitation which is currently going into effect.

WHEREAS, the counties and schools will bear the brunt of the Proposition and with, most importantly, the taxpaying homeowners having to pick up a much larger percentage share of the tax load.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

The Board of Supervisors hereby is unanimously opposed to the passage of Proposition 106.

ADOPTED this 14th day of October, 1980

Norman L. Turley
Chairman, Board of Supervisors

ATTEST: Sharon R. Keams
Clerk

RESOLUTION NO. 94-80

OPPOSITION TO THE PASSAGE OF PROPOSITION 106

WHEREAS, the Intent of Proposition 106 and what will actually pass are not the same. Instead of being referred to as bringing tax relief to homeowners, it should more accurately be referred to as the Mines, Utilities and Railroads Relief Proposition, for they will receive the bulk of the tax savings.

WHEREAS, STATE spending will not be affected at all for they do not rely on the property tax as a revenue source.

WHEREAS, the voters of Arizona on this past June 3, 1980 passed a comprehensive tax reform package which also included a comprehensive spending limitation which is currently going into effect.

WHEREAS, the counties and schools will bear the brunt of the Proposition and with, most importantly, the taxpaying homeowners having to pick up a much larger percentage share of the tax load.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

The Board of Supervisors hereby is unanimously opposed to the passage of Proposition 106.

ADOPTED this 14th day of October, 1980

Norman H. Turley
Chairman, Board of Supervisors

ATTEST: Sharon R. Keene
Clerk